

Are you worming your dog frequently enough?

Use this chart to help you determine how often your dog should receive  RIDAWORM Plus XL worming treatments against the common intestinal worms found in the UK.

Is your dog less than 6 months old?

NO

Does your dog have freedom to explore the outdoors off the lead, including your garden?

YES

NO

Is your dog fed a raw food diet, or do they like to eat anything they find?

NO

Does your dog live with children under 5, the elderly or immuno-compromised individuals?

NO

Advice: Give  RIDAWORM Plus XL Wormer MONTHLY

Advice: Give  RIDAWORM Plus XL Wormer at least QUARTERLY

* This chart is only a guide, you should always speak with your vet about your dog's specific worming requirements.

 RIDAWORM Plus XL

TREATS  ROUNDWORMS  HOOKWORMS  TAPEWORMS  WHIPWORMS

* Guidance based on ESCCAP Guideline Worm Control in Dogs and Cats, May 2021.
This is intended as guidance only and you should speak to your vet or retailer about the specific needs of your pet.
Advice on worming pregnant/lactating pets should be sought from your vet or retailer.

For more information visit
PET HEALTH FIRST.COM

By chanelle PHARMA